Supervisor Molina made the following statement:

“The County’s 2005 March of Dimes WalkAmerica campaign continues a tradition of support for the nonprofit organization that funds valuable research to prevent infant mortality and premature births. County employees voluntarily contribute to the campaign through various fundraisers, including WalkAmerica. A portion of the proceeds are returned to the County in the form of grants to local medical facilities, including the LAC/USC Medical Center.

“In support of the County’s 2005 March of Dimes/WalkAmerica drive, ‘Blue Jeans for Babies Day’ will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, July 6 and 7, 2005. County employees are being asked to voluntarily donate $5 per day, which will go to the March of Dimes, in exchange for wearing blue jeans or business casual attire to work on one or both days. This is a worthwhile effort to improve the lives of thousands of children.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Molina, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Board proclaimed July 6 and 7, 2005 as “Blue Jeans for Babies Day” throughout Los Angeles County; and encouraged all employees to participate in the campaign to improve the lives of children by voluntarily donating $5.00 per day to the March of Dimes, in exchange for wearing blue jeans or business casual attire to work on one or both days.
